At Picture Wealth Advisory Pty Ltd (PWA) we put our clients at the centre of everything we do but we recognise that even in the best run organisations, things can go wrong. We want to give you the best experience, so if you are unsatisfied in any way, we'd like you to tell us about it.

We will take your feedback seriously and aim to resolve your complaint in a respectful, fair and reasonable way as quickly as we can as detailed in this policy.

This policy explains how you can make a complaint, our measures for handling your complaint, and the steps you can take if you are not satisfied with our response to your complaint or the time that it takes for us to respond.

When we use the term "IDR", we mean "internal dispute resolution".

We acknowledge the importance of having an effective and efficient complaints handling and IDR framework, and we adopt a customer-focused approach. While we acknowledge your right to make a complaint, we expect that you will treat our staff with respect when they are dealing with your complaint.

The Instrument is a legislative instrument made by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC").

[†]Time stops running when (a) another person commences legal proceedings to be included as a beneficiary and the outcome would affect the handling of the complaint at IDR; or (b) the traditional trustee applies for an opinion, advice or direction from a court to reasonably handle the complaint at IDR. Time will start to run again once the court determines whether the other person should be included as a beneficiary, or provides an opinion, advice or otherwise gives a direction, and the time to lodge an appeal (if relevant) has passed.

^{††}Any objection to a proposed death benefit distribution will trigger the start of the IDR process. When an objection is made, the 90-calendar day maximum IDR timeframe begins from the end of the 28-calendar day objection period
